Dan Schuck's Return to Stage

[Long Beach, CA, March 2020] — Acoustic guitar musician and singer, Dan Schuck returns to the stage and is available for entertainment engagements. With over 40 years of experience in entertaining crowds of all shapes and sizes, Dan's 'campfire' style is suitable for cross-generational audiences in want of sing-along, laugh-along, cry-along and dance-along fun!

While he has spent the greater part of four decades developing his own sound, his music is not without a tasteful backdrop of influence from the likes of Paul Simon, James Taylor, Jim Croce and Willie Nelson to name just a few. His wide-ranging influences find its way into his solo material, and as a result, his solo acoustic sets are hard to pigeonhole.

Dan focuses on utilizing only his acoustic guitar to create the illusion of a full band experience. His live sets comprise of himself and his guitar and are a compelling mix of his own solo material as well as fan favorite covers.

Can perform 100% acoustic, through a house PA system, or can provide full portable amplification to suit (almost) any venue.

Dan Schuck welcomes gig opportunities in the Long Beach, Los Angeles and Orange County areas and can be reached for engagement at dan@danschuckmusic.com or at 619-520-5586.
